

Greiner-Maltz President To Be Honored by Charity

SHAREing & CAREing Holds Anniversary Dinner, Auction

Commercial real estate broker John B. Maltz, president of Greiner-Maltz, a firm that is very active in the Brooklyn commercial real estate market, will be a guest of honor (along with Anthony Argento, president of Broadway Stages) at the 12th Anniversary Benefit and Silent Auction hosted by SHAREing & CAREing on Nov. 15 at in Astoria, Queens.

"SHAREing & CAREing really accomplishes great things and helps people who truly are in need," said Maltz. "Our philosophy of giving back to the community fits well with the goal of SHAREing & CAREing, one of the highest impact charities I have ever been associated with. Women, with little or no options for vital health care, are virtually brought back from the brink every day, through the medical programs and outpatient services provided by SHAREing & CAREing."

It is also one of Greiner-Maltz's online "Click for Charity" programs whereby 100 percent of the proceeds go directly to the charity.

Said Anna Kril, president of SHAREing & CAREing, "Organizations like SHAREing & CAREing depend on the corporate support of the neighborhoods we serve and we are very grateful that our business community gives back. In this situation Greiner-Maltz not only gives back, but they enable SHAREing & CAREing to save lives of the people without health insurance."

The event will take place from 7 to 10 p.m. at Ricardo's by the Bridge, at 21-01 24th Ave. in Astoria.
