

LONG ISLAND MONTHLY

NEW YORK REAL ESTATE JOURNAL

MARCH 18 - MARCH 30, 2003

HI-LIGHTS

Greiner Maltz celebrates 50 years of business

Greiner Maltz celebrated 50 years by launching "Click For Charity". This will provide donations to local charitable organizations.

See page 26B.

With new launch of "Click For Charity" Greiner Maltz celebrates 50 years of business

LONG ISLAND CITY, N.Y. – Greiner Maltz celebrated its 50th anniversary by launching "Click For Charity," a new feature of their website, which will provide donations to a representative group of local charitable organizations.

This website, [www.greiner maltz.com](http://www.greiner maltz.com) has been visited by bankers, appraisers, lawyers, and corporate executives over the course of the year.

By clicking on the Greiner Maltz red and gold 50th anniversary symbol, each visitor can elect to have Greiner Maltz contribute a "penny-a-click", with 100% of the proceeds going to the selected charities.

The New York Times Neediest Cases Fund

Each year, The New York Times neediest cases fund collects contributions from the public by publishing stories about people living in despair in NY. Since The New York Times pays all fund expenses, 100% of the contributions go directly to the following social service agencies: The Brooklyn Bureau of Community Service, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Brooklyn and Queens, The Children's Aid Society, Community Service Society of NY., Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies, Inc., UJA - Federation of NY.

City Harvest

Founded in 1981, City Harvest is the world's largest and oldest food rescue program. Each day, City Harvest picks up nearly 45,000 pounds of food that would otherwise go to waste from restaurants, farms, grocers, bakeries, and other sources and delivers it to community food organizations serving needy New Yorkers.

Queens Child Guidance Center

Established 50 years ago to promote the emotional well-being of children and their families, the Queens Child Guidance Center offers a wide range of services and practical supports.

By offering community-based after-school programs, tutoring, day care and therapy to children and their families, the center helps children cope with challenges

In 2002, the Queens Child Guidance Center assisted 8,000 children and their fami-