

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

February 21, 2007

Greiner-Maltz, along with the State Bank of Long Island, recently co-sponsored a Long Island City Development Corp (LICBDC) breakfast featuring CouncilMember Eric Gioia who spoke on Creating a City for the Middle Class in the 21st Century. The breakfast, which attracted over 100 influential business leaders was held at the Tennisport Restaurant in Long Island City. Pictured are John Maltz, president of Greiner-Maltz (left) and Councilmember Eric Gioia (right).